If you're interested in a dystopian series that doubles as a quick-pace thriller, then you'll love No. 6. The two main characters, work together to live together outside a utopian area called No. 6, after they've been chased and hunted. This series characterization is artfully done, and the art is captivating.

Vol 2: 4 stars The story is starting to progress more, but it's sort of at a slow pace. What a cliffy! Onto the next one! Vol 3: 3 stars UGHHHHH!!!! I don't like quick engagements. I'm not seeing the connection between the main couple. The female is also a bit annoying now. I'll still listen to the last book in this series. Vol 4: 3 stars
